

Dr. Kaushal Pandey

Cardio - Thoracic & Vascular Surgeon

Qualification

M.S., M. Ch., F.A.C.A.

Dr. Pandey brings to Wockhardt Heart Hospital a vast experience of performing about eight thousand Cardio-Thoracic & Vascular Surgeries in India and abroad.

During his five years stay in Australia, Dr. Pandey was exposed to about 3500 cases, out of which he himself performed 800 operations.

Dr. Pandey returned back to India in Feb 1991 and took up a Consultant's position in a leading hospital of Bombay. During his ten years stay at the Hospital Dr. Pandey did about 5800 cases, with an overall mortality rate as low as 2%. Coronary Artery Bypass Graft Surgery accounts for 80% of his cases, Valve surgery for 10% and Congenital Heart Surgery / Vascular Surgery accounts for 10% of his cases.

Surgical Expertise

TAR (Total Aortic Revascularisation). Most of the cases involve use of either Single or Bilateral IMA graft in conjunction with either Single or Bilateral Radial Artery Graft.

Surgery of Infective Endocarditis.

Aortic Aneurysms.

Professional Qualifications and Fellowships:

1975-79	MBBS, B. J. Medical College, Pune.
1981-83	M.S. (General Surgery), Sassoon General Hospital, Pune.
1984-85	M.Ch. (Cardio thoracic), Pune Chest Hospital
1986-88	Cardiac Surgery Training, Epworth Hospital, Melbourne
1988-89	Registrar in Cardiac Surgery, Royal Melbourne Hospital, Melbourne Hospital, Melbourne.
1989-90	Registrar in Cardiac Surgery, St. Vincent Hospital, Melbourne.

1990-91

Registrar in Cardiac Surgery. Specialized training in pediatric cardiac, aortic homografts, valve repair and cardiac transplant surgery, The Prince Charles Hospital, Brisbane.

Honors and Awards:

Dr. G. V. Karve for standing first in Surgery at M.B.B.S. examination.

Vinayak Jagannath Shanker Sheth prize for standing first at the M.S. (Gen.Surgery) examination.